

Celicare™ Plus Activate Healing & Support Stem Cell Production

Natural Healing For the Body and Mind. Celicare™ targets the loss of cellular communication and activates reserve cells to repair and to regenerate through enhanced cell signaling.

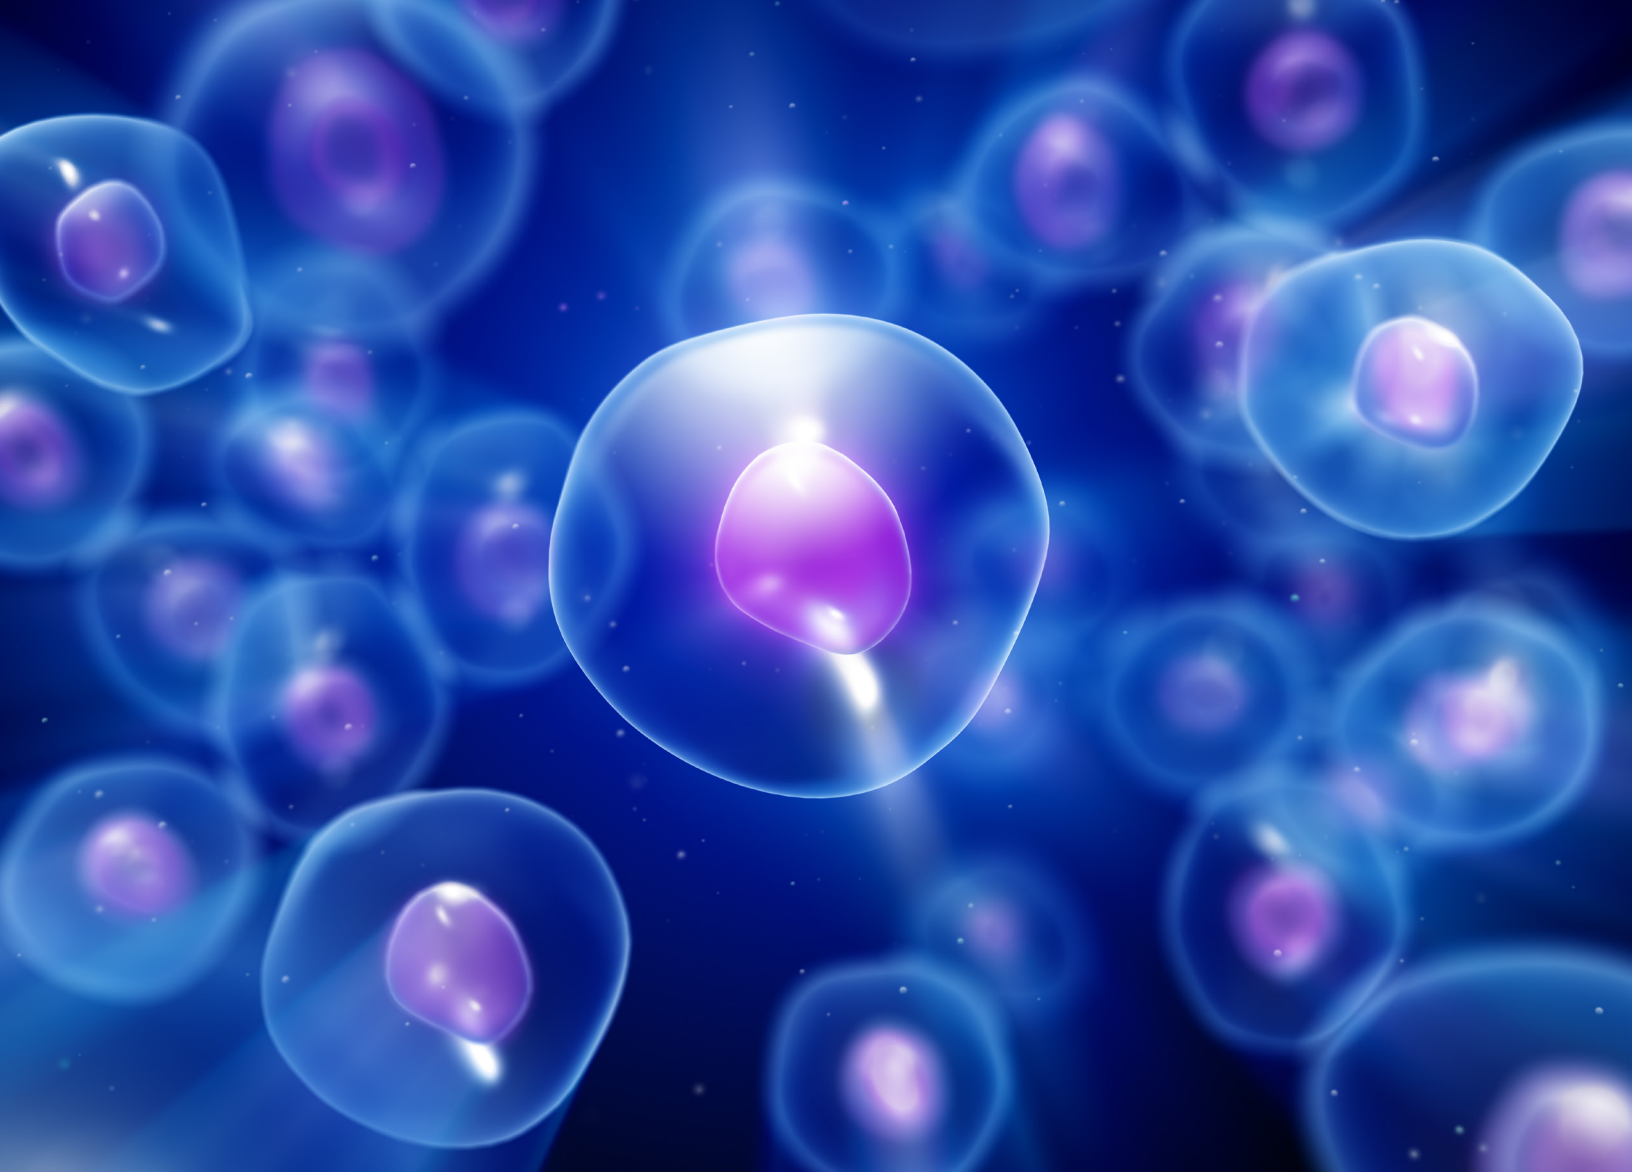

An Introduction to Celicare™

New Human is working with a foreign biotechnology group that extracts cell-specific natural source activation proteins and generative plant stem cells. As a result we offer you the new professional product line: Celicare.

Celicare is based on natural sources of specifically extracted plant stem cells which include regulating proteins (glyco-peptides and/or tri-peptides) in micro-cellular activated concentrations.

This product line targets the loss of cellular communication and activates reserve cells (undifferentiated cells) to repair and regenerate through enhanced cell signaling*.

What They Are, How They Work

These formulas contain plant stem cells, including specific regulatory proteins (bio regulators), that help affect and balance natural cell repair mechanisms. Their action is similar, in principle, to homeopathic sarcode therapy.

When information structures within the body/mind are targeted using plant-based stem cells, they may activate normal adult stem cells creating balance within the body.

Plant Stem Cells Are Part of the Plant Itself—Used to Create New Growth

Bio regulators in plant-based stem cells affect cell-to-cell communication, enzyme interaction, and control normal cell processes to maintain healthy cellular vitality.

These plant-based stem cell products are multifunctional and support wellness protocols for humans and animals.

Celicore products can be used one at a time, or in any combination depending on the situation.

Supplement Information

Our non-toxic preparations do not render an unfavorable influence on other tissue matrices or the organism as a whole.

Due to the micro-dosage it does not have an allergic response in long term applications.

Please be aware that this product is NOT Stem Cell Therapy. Stem Cell Therapy requires the transplant of Embryonic Stem Cells from one source to another.

Celicore formulations use specific micro-cellular plant stem cells containing regulating proteins to activate adult somatic cell activities and support normal stem cell production.*

Recommended Usage:

Take 2 Sprays orally 3x times per day, 15 minutes either before or after eating. When taking multiple CELICORE™ products take each 30 minutes apart.

A suggested protocol guide is available.

They are bottled with an oral spray applicator in a one-ounce sealed bottle. If used in combination with other supplements, wait 30 minutes after the first dose to introduce a second or third formula. These products are NOT designed to be imprinted.

Please Note: Our formulations are completely natural nano-plant stem cells derived in their natural state from organic plants and natural cell sources. NO ANIMAL PRODUCTS ARE USED.

Because they are organic in nature, each formula in the CELICORE™ product line is subject to availability. Also, if you have a specific need please contact us to see if micro-cellular activator proteins are available to meet your requirements.

Due to the substrate or working level that these formulas can support the body/mind, it is possible that someone might test strong for one that isn't actually named for what the client might be physically experiencing.

It isn't so much related to the specific PRODUCT NAME as it is to the nature of plant stem cells and cell regulation. Any product in the Celicore line, is useable. In theory, any formula could in fact be used for any situation, based on the multi-dimensional nature of the inner communication system of the body.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: If any Celicore product can be used, how can it be determined which is best?

A: Start first with the most appropriate label title and go from there. Or you may add a second Celicore to the mix. Be sure you also add MCR 23 for the cellular substrate and cofactors to support the body's cellular repair cycles.

Q: How do I learn more about CELICORE™ and Bionetics?

A: We are always offering courses to improve your Bionetic Practice.

Q: Why is Celicore so powerful?

A: It is well known that cellular health isn't solely related to biochemistry. In fact, the body/mind is one unit and many health concerns are controlled by negative influences in brain/mind/ thought processes.

The Celicore brand products, are also helpful in quieting the mind by negating the mental strategies created in negative thoughts.

This is done through a process of electromagnetic harmonic balancing of the products which include a base matrix to reduce some of the powerful and negative effects of the mental body which get into the way of total health.

It's still up to the client to find purpose and make plans of action for moving forward, but Celicore aids in the process of helping reduce the power of the mental body that can keep us from our Source Center.

Q: How does the mind get in the way of healing?

A: Many healing events are stopped by the fear of symptoms. Many symptoms are a result of healing. If a person gets scared of the symptom, they may take over-the-counter drugs to stop the healing event.

Carefully managing symptoms is vital in health recovery. Also, too much mental stress is now widely accepted as a contributor to most illnesses. Mindfulness has now been found to aid healing.
